Believe me that Smith will out number them still. Gentlemen, I am proud of being an origi nal Smith; not a Smythe nor Smyth, but a 2 50 to 12 00 regular, natural S-m-i-t-h, Smith. Putting a Y in the middle or an E at the end won't do gentlemen. Who ever heard of a great man by the name of Smyth, or Smithe, or Smythe? Echo answers who, and everybody answers nobody. But as for Smith, plain S-m-i-t-h, why, the pillars of fame are covered with that honored and revered name. Who were the the most racy, witty and popular authors of this century? Horace and Albert Smith .-2 00 to 16 00 Who was the most original, pithy and humor 7 50 ous preacher? Rev. Sydney Smith. To go further back-who was the bravest and boldest soldier in Sumpter's army in the revolution? A Smith. Who palavered with Pow-

And who, I ask -and I question more seriously and soberly -who, say, is the man, and what is his name who fought the most battles, made the most 30 00 speeches, preached the most sermons, held the most offices, sung the most songs, wrote the most poems, courted the most women, kissed the most girls, and married the most widows? History says, I say, you say, and everybody says, John Smith!" WAXED ENDS EXTRAORDINARY.

The Auburn (California) Herald relates that a Chinaman went into the bankinghouse of Wells, Fargo & Co., at that place, one day last week, when the clerk in attendance had occasion to go into the vault, but kept an eye to the banking-room at the same time. On looking around, he saw a piece of money moving off of a tray, and, hearing a piece fall on the floor, he walked out, and going to the front of the counter, collared the wax, and, standing at the counter with it, had no difficulty in reaching the waxed end to where the money lay, and applying it to the surface of a double eagle, was "snaking it home," but the wax did not stick tightly enough, and the money falling to the floor, the trick was exposed. Upon examining the fellow, a small box was found upon him containing wax such as he had used upon his pipe. He probably has heretofore performed this feat of legerdemain with suc-
